

William G. Mackenzie, M.D.
Emeritus Chairman, Department Orthopaedic Surgery
Nemours Children's Hospital, Delaware

William Mackenzie, M.D. is Emeritus Chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, was the previous holder of the Shands/MacEwen Endowed Chair at the Nemours Children's Hospital, Delaware, and is a Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at the Sidney Kimmel Medical College at Thomas Jefferson University. Dr. Mackenzie is Chairman of the Medical Advisory Board for Little People of America and Medical Director of the Dwarf Athletic Association of America. He is the past President of the Limb Lengthening and Reconstruction Society. Dr. Mackenzie is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons and the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.

His clinical interests include skeletal dysplasia, limb length discrepancy, and limb alignment. With his expertise in these areas, he has been invited to teach and lecture at over 350 National and International speaking engagements.

Dr. Mackenzie earned his medical degree and completed his residency at the University of British Columbia. He completed his internship at McGill University and completed his fellowship in pediatric orthopaedics at the Nemours Children's Hospital, Delaware.

Dr. Mackenzie is an active member in numerous societies and served on the Board of Directors for the Pediatric Orthopaedic Society of North America. His distinctions include being named "Best Doctors in America" and "Guide to America's Top Surgeons" since 2002. He has over 160 publications in peer reviewed journals and has written 24 book chapters.